

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is a threat to democracy. I urge you to pressure Sinclair either not to air "Stolen Honor" or, in order to balance information, air "Going Upriver" immediately afterward.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Thank you.
